

DFNHS Treasurer’s report AGM October 2025

Summary

Total Amount in feeder account on 14/10/25 = £4,515 + £3,500 in our current account. Our principal outgoings over the past 12 months have been £900 for Junior Doctors’ essay prize, £8-900 bimonthly magazine costs including postage and £1000 pcm to our Communication and Publicity manager. We have given no money in the past two years to KONP, NHS Fed or other recipients.

The graphs show fluctuations in our deposit balance over the past 12 months and over the past five years.

Subscriptions

Since our last AGM meeting, we have lost 51 members (9 known deaths) and this year we have only gained 2 new members (both from this year’s essay prize). See below for membership statistics over the past five years.

Year	New members	Losses	Net loss
2025	2	51	49
2024	2	45	43
2023	4	41	37
2022	3	30	27
2021	2	50	48
2000	13	25	12

We currently have 475 paid-up members including 26 GPs and 12 trainees.

£700 Essay Prize

This year’s title was “ How can medical education be improved for the benefit of the patient?” There were 45 entries.. This year’s winners were Ke Wei Foong 1st, =2nd Jack Gamble, Ramili Rashad and Hannah Chow. The prize-winning entries have been submitted to the Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine for consideration for publication.

In summary

No pressing issues but we must take note of the steady 10% reduction in numbers, and hence income. T
